

Where Everyone Plays a Part

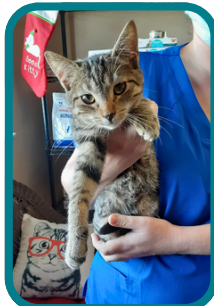

Sumter County Animal Hospital has been a long-standing main street staple in Wildwood, Florida since 1984, serving as a trusted cornerstone of the community. Clients know the doctors, trust their recommendations, and come back because of the consistency of care they receive for their furry and feathered friends. You'll work alongside highly respected DVM's who have earned lasting trust in the community, giving you the opportunity to learn from experienced clinicians while building lasting relationships and confidence. The combination of mentorship, autonomy, and a growing client base creates real opportunity to develop your own style of medicine.

Hear From Our Beloved Pet Parents:

"As ALWAYS, the entire staff is amazing."

"This is the best animal hospital, everyone is so nice, they actually listen to you."

How This Team Shows Up

Creating a healthy work environment is a top priority, with a strong focus on unity, teamwork, and mental well-being. The day moves quickly, but people check in with each other, step in when things get busy, and keep communication open so nothing gets missed. There's a shared understanding that everyone plays a role in how the day goes, which keeps things running smoothly. The team also makes time to connect outside of work, building genuine relationships that strengthen how they work together every day.

Life in Wildwood

Wildwood offers a pace of life that's easy to settle into and enjoy. You can spend a morning at Lake Okahumpka Park, grab lunch nearby, and still avoid the traffic of a bigger city. Weekends might mean golfing, biking local trails, or heading to The Villages for live music and dining just minutes away. What makes it stand out is the balance. You get more space, a lower cost of living, and a quieter routine, with Orlando and Tampa close enough for an easy day trip away.
