

Come for the Cases, Stay for the Scenery

Build confidence, expand your skills, and find genuine camaraderie at our emergency hospital.

At Mountain Emergency Animal Center, we understand that choosing where you work is deeply personal. It's about finding a place where you feel appreciated, supported, and inspired every single day. As the only animal emergency hospital serving North Georgia, Tennessee, and North Carolina's Tri-State region, we've worked hard to create a welcoming environment where professionals like you can truly make a difference. To support the ongoing growth of our doctors, we host RACE-approved CE sessions right in our own conference room, ensuring you'll always have opportunities to learn, stay current with best practices, and expand your expertise.

A Culture of Support

We're more than a workplace—we're a community. Here, you'll find a team that truly values your well-being and supports your growth, both personally and professionally. Our culture is built on collaboration, respect, and a shared commitment to excellence. With a focus on open communication and teamwork, we've created an environment where you can thrive, build meaningful connections, and feel proud of the work you do every day.

Cutting-Edge Capabilities & Cases

As a fully equipped emergency hospital, we handle the kind of acute and critical cases you won't often see in general practice.

- Ultrasound, digital X-ray, and in-house diagnostic labs.
- Bronchoscope, endoscope, and state-of-the-art anesthesia machines.
- Advanced tools like Ligasure, cautery, and a Snyder unit.

What Pet Parents Have to Say About Your New Litter Mates

"The staff and doctor were very helpful, compassionate and understanding."

"All staff were excellent!"

"I love the staff at Mountain Emergency. Their kindness and compassion for our Lillie was unsurpassed."

A Setting That Feels Like Home

Located in the scenic Blue Ridge region, our hospital is surrounded by nature's beauty—lush hiking trails, serene biking paths, and vibrant festivals that bring joy and community spirit. We're just 2 hours north of Atlanta and 1 hour south of Chattanooga, placing you near exciting cities but still immersed in the comfort of a friendly, close-knit community.
