

Where Mixed Animal Medicine Keeps Every Day Interesting

Crete Veterinary Clinic has been caring for pets and livestock in southeast Nebraska for nearly 40 years, combining true mixed-animal medicine with personalized, relationship-driven care. The clinic emphasizes a practical, hands-on approach while still prioritizing progressive, evidence-based medicine across both small and large animal services. Doctors stay engaged across a wide variety of cases, including companion animal wellness and surgery, herd health, equine reproductive services, acupuncture, emergency large animal calls, and livestock medicine, creating a well-rounded practice where no two days look the same.

Hear From Our Pet Parents:

"The clinic is clean, well kept and well run. Everyone is polite and helpful and genuine."

"We are so grateful to have such a reliable and compassionate veterinary team!"

Equipped for Care Across Species

Crete Veterinary Clinic is set up to support both small and large animal care, giving you the tools needed to handle a wide range of cases in a single day. You will have access to:

- Digital radiography for small and large animals
- Ultrasonography
- High-speed dental equipment
- IDEXX in-house blood analyzers

Combined with services like after-hours large animal care and equine breeding, the hospital is built to support true mixed animal medicine in a practical, hands-on way.

Rooted in Community, Built on Support

On any given day, you will see team members jump in to help each other, share knowledge, and work together through the busy moments. Clients are friendly, appreciative, and genuinely care about their animals, which makes the work feel rewarding. Paired with a supportive team and strong work-life balance, it is the kind of environment where people enjoy coming to work.

Life In Crete, NE

Crete offers a relaxed, small-town lifestyle with the right balance of convenience, community, and access to more when you want it. The town has all the day-to-day essentials, standout local Mexican restaurants, and nearby spots like Tuxedo Park and Doane University that give the community extra character. You are also just 20 minutes from Lincoln and a little over an hour from Omaha, giving you easy access to bigger-city amenities while still enjoying the quieter side of Nebraska living.
