

Position description:

Platform Owner

Reporting to:

Domain Lead

Date:

March 2026

Location:

Various

The role

This role looks after specific infrastructure products from start to finish. It works closely with the business to understand what's needed, plans and prioritises future work, and makes sure changes are designed and delivered in the right way. The role is also responsible for keeping these products running well day to day, getting the best value from them over time.

Position accountabilities

- Manage the complete lifecycle of their designated infrastructure products – Plan, Implement, Utilise and Retire:

Plan:

- Work closely with stakeholders across the business to validate and manage their needs – articulating the plans and shared vision in a coherent and understandable business outcome focused manner.
- Maintain a product roadmap and backlog, contributing details of work required (justification, scope, cost, timescales etc) to Domain Leads and other stakeholders to prioritise between multiple competing demands.

Implement:

- Own the solution architecture for their designated products, ensuring alignment with other infrastructure products and wider ICT architectural direction.
- Actively lead and communicate the delivery of change for their designated products, ensuring change activities stay aligned to specified objectives and that delivery cadence and cost is managed.

Utilise:

- Manage the operational performance of their designated products ensuring they are supported, maintained and enhanced to maximise ROI.

Retire:

- Maintain an awareness of product usage and opportunities to retire/replace products.
