

Position Title	Lecturer, Physiotherapy (Acute Care)
Group/Portfolio	Griffith Health
Classification	Lecturer (Level B)
Position Number	00055327
Reports To	Head of School
Employment Type	Continuing, full time

1.0 Position Purpose

A Level B Lecturer in Acute Care Physiotherapy is expected to contribute to the educational and research activities of the institution. This role involves delivering high-quality learning and teaching, research, supporting clinical education, and engaging in professional and scholarly activities to enhance the discipline of physiotherapy. The role is pivotal in designing and delivering high-quality student learning opportunities in Acute Care physiotherapy, while supporting broader program learning and teaching foci such as simulation, interprofessional education, and cultural safety. The role will additionally contribute to the advancement of cardiorespiratory/cardiovascular rehabilitation physiotherapy research and/or educational scholarship.

2.0 Eligibility Requirements

The occupant will hold:

- A doctoral or master's qualification in Physiotherapy (or equivalent discipline), or
- Equivalent accreditation and standing with 6+ years of relevant clinical experience, and/or
- Significant progress towards completion of a doctoral degree in a relevant field.
- Demonstrated experience in acute care physiotherapy.
- Registration with AHPRA as a physiotherapist.
- Desirable: Research track record in cardiorespiratory/cardiovascular physiotherapy and rehabilitation.

3.0 Key Responsibilities

This position description incorporates the full scope of responsibilities for this position. Actual expected responsibilities are applied in accordance with individual work profiles and in consultation with the incumbent's Academic Supervisor.

Enhance the learning and teaching environment of the School

- Foster an outstanding student experience and encourage active participation and engagement in learning and teaching across the spectrum of the University's undergraduate, and postgraduate program suite facilitating high quality, student-centred learning activities.
- Support high quality learning and teaching outcomes for students evidenced by technology enhanced learning, problem oriented, authentic learning and assessment practices.

- Support a student-centred service culture and establishment of positive, respectful and supportive relationships between staff and students.
- Promote and enhance student learning experiences through engagement with industry and broader community to develop work integrated learning opportunities and support employability initiatives.
- Contribute to the advancement of knowledge through a balanced research portfolio of high-quality outputs that demonstrate impact.
- Undertake research cardiorespiratory/cardiovascular research supporting improved patient outcomes.
- Ensure consistently high-quality experiences and outcomes are achieved for higher degree research (HDR) candidates

Engage in evaluative and reflective practices to support education

- Continuously improve teaching practice through professional development and critical reflection informed by a range of evaluation approaches.
- Inform the quality, innovation, currency and evidence-base of teaching and learning through scholarly activities, commitments and outputs.
- Undertake activity aligned with the scholarship of learning and teaching that has the potential to achieve impact on policy and practice in the wider higher education community.

Facilitate effective and efficient administration in support of education initiatives

- Provide educational contributions through responsibility for academic courses, including undertaking responsibilities aligned with the role of course convenor.
- Support, ensure and maintain compliance with relevant legislation and University policies and procedures, including equity and health & safety and exhibit good practice in relation to same.

Demonstrate personal leader of Griffith's values

- Be a leading example of the principles and values embodied in the University's Code of Conduct, and behave, act and communicate at all times to reflect fairness, ethics and professionalism.
- Contribute to the enhancement of the School/Department standing and reputation by promoting educational activities with external communities.

4.0 Key Capabilities

- Griffith University identifies the attributes of resilience, flexibility, creativity, digital literacy and entrepreneurship as critical to our graduates' success, in the rapidly changing future world of work. We have established a Griffith University Capability Development Framework to provide a common language of some of the non-technical organisation skills that will support our staff to thrive now and into the future. The Capability Development Framework will assist you to understand the current skill level of this position in the non-technical but critical skill domains that are increasingly important in a changing workplace context.

To read about some of the non-technical organisation skills for this position, please see the Leads Self section of our Capability Development Framework.