Integrated Mental Health Consortia

The Toowoomba Integrated Mental Health Hub is an innovative new way of providing integrated stepped care in Queensland's mental health and wellbeing system. Wellways, alongside three consortia partners, Each, Queensland Program of Assistance to Survivors of Torture and Trauma (QPASTT) and Goondir Health Services, will offer an easy way for people to access seamless care and support for mental health concerns. Services are free, voluntary and easy to access. The Hub will operate on the principles of 'no wrong door', community inclusion and consumer choice and control.

This diverse coalition enhances service delivery through comprehensive, community-focused care. The partnership brings expertise from deep local regional connection, strong clinical background, lived experience expertise, First Nations and cultural awareness and will deliver comprehensive, integrated and person-centred care across the Toowoomba Region. The partnership will address service gaps for the 'missing middle' by enhancing accessibility and integrating primary mental health care, psychosocial support and early intervention, as well as connection to external services to address social determinants of wellbeing.

The Role

The Counsellor reports to the Clinical Lead and is responsible for providing support in the delivery of Social and Emotional Wellbeing (SEWB) care to clients. The Counsellor forms part of a multi-disciplinary team and works collaboratively with the team and other programs areas. The Counsellor will provide SEWB support services to assist clients who are dealing with a wide range of issues including grief and loss grief, depression, domestic and family violence, family and/or relationship matters and any other issues which impact on social and emotional wellbeing. The Counsellor will support, guide, advise and remain connected with participants throughout their service coordination journey.
