

What is your Peace of Mind?

All around the globe customers rely on our safe connecting solutions. But we are also a reliable partner for our employees. About 1,800 colleagues in more than 30 countries play their part in ensuring that our products optimally combine mission-critical components. Whether it's motors, airbags or heart pumps – every day we develop connecting solutions for a wide variety of industries and thus take important steps towards a better future. Would you like to be a part of it? Find your peace of mind!

Oetiker Limited was established in Canada in 1961, and has been located in Alliston, ON since 1978. Oetiker continues to develop and grow as the Group expands product offerings to provide customers with high-quality engineered connecting solutions. Help strengthen our team in Alliston at the earliest possible date as a

Production Operator Level 1 - Nights

WHAT YOU'LL DO

- Start up, operate and shut down machines
- Continuously monitor parts to ensure product quality
- Perform accurate production and quality transaction in computer
- Feed and unjam material

WHAT YOU'LL NEED

- Assembly Skills, Attention to Detail Skills, Inspection Skills, Math Skills, Reading Comprehension Skills
- High School Diploma/GED
- Manufacturing experience preferred

WHAT YOU'LL GET

- Comprehensive Benefit Package
- Pension Plan

Oetiker, Ltd. is an equal opportunity employer.

Get to know us to get ahead.

For more than 75 years, Oetiker has been a leading manufacturer of high-end connecting solutions for OEMs worldwide. As an employer, we offer our employees attractive international challenges and many development opportunities. Diversity and high quality standards are the foundation of our corporate culture. This way, we combine the visions of today with the technology of tomorrow.

Oetiker, Ltd.

203 Dufferin St S, Alliston, ON L9R 1E9, Canada
phone +1 705.435.4394

Let's connect:
www.oetiker.com/careers